2. A member with an active fob must be present at the launch in order to launch their own watercraft or have it launched by a family member, friend or marine service company. Also, a member with an active fob may also assist another member that has an active fob with launching that member's watercraft, if that member is unavailable to be at the launch, if the watercraft is being launched by the unavailable member's family, friend or marine service company. 5. Upon selling your property, the fob MUST BE returned to the Board Treasurer or other Board Member before completion of the sale (i.e., tendering title to the new owner). Fobs are not transferrable to new property owners. After a fob is properly returned, the fob deposit will be refunded.
6. Upon discontinuing membership in RCC, including failure to timely pay your membership dues, the fob MUST BE returned to the Board Treasurer or other Board Member. After a fob is returned, the deposit will be refunded.
